Harding: We Will Crush Terrorism With Full Force

Sir John Harding, the Governor of Cyprus, has warned that a tough policy will be followed to crush EOKA, the Cypriot underground organization.

Giving details to the "Rand Daily Mail" in his first interview since the execution of Michael Karolos and Andreas Demetriou, the Cypriot Greek underground members, on Thursday, the Governor said in the telephone conversation, "I do not think that the execution of the two will mean the end of the terror on the island."

"Drastic measures are necessary to restore order," Sir John declared. "We cannot tolerate terrorism, particularly as it affects overall strategy, and we will use the most forceful measures to crush it. One of these will be the implementation of collective punishment for acts of the EOKA."

Two Britons Hanged

EOKA announced on Friday that it had hanged two British soldiers in reprisal for the execution of Michael Karolos and Andreas Demetriou. Yesterday, British troops opened fire in Nicosia, killing a Cypriot who was distributing leaflets in the streets.

Government sources said they doubted the extremists' announcement made in leaflets distributed in Nicosia. The leaflets said that the bodies of the two Britons would not be returned "following the example of the occupation forces towards Greek patriots."

The two Cypriots hanged on Thursday were buried in the Nicosia prison cemetery.

79 Rebels Killed in Algerian Battle

ALGIERS, Saturday (UPI).—French paratroopers killed 79 rebels in a violent battle in the Kabylie mountains as the French forces prepared for an expected new offensive by the insurgents.

The battle took place yesterday near El Milia, 70 kms. west of Algiers, in the Constantine district, where a parachute unit was attacked by a large rebel band supported by members of the local population.

This was the largest action reported since the French forces were alerted in expectation of the rebels' offensive at the end of the Ramadan Fast.

In Constantine, there were gun battles in the city today as settlers fought rebels who attempted to create panic in the city. At least 15 Moslems were killed and six Europeans wounded. The alert was sounded as the first rebel attack started in the morning with the bombing of two cafes, one Jewish-owned, where nine persons were wounded. One of the terrorists who tossed the bomb into the Jewish cafe was shot dead.

The Central Committee of the French Communist Party had called on Party members to organize strikes and demonstrations to demand peace in Algeria. It has urged all militant workers and socialist organizations to join in this action.

Police seized yesterday's issue of the Communist Party's newspaper, "l'Humanité," and the week-end issue of its companion Sunday newspaper, "l'Humanité Dimanche."

Mollet, Pineau Off To Russia Tomorrow

PARIS, Saturday (Reuters).—Premier Guy Mollet and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau leave here on Monday for an official visit to Moscow where they are expected to try to discuss what is behind Russia's "new look" in world policy.

The political talks will probably last until the end of the week. M. Mollet is expected to return on May 20. M. Pineau will stay in Russia for a few days on a trip which will probably take him to Leningrad, Kiev, and Armenia.

With deep sorrow we announce the sudden untimely death of our beloved

Dr. Manfred Schnock

THE BEREAVED FAMILY

The funeral will leave from Hadassah Hospital, Rehov Mass., Tel Aviv, at 3.15 p.m. today.

Oren to be Freed Today; Prague Remits 15-Year Prison Term

Mordechai Oren, imprisoned in Czechoslovakia since December 1951, is to be released today, the Foreign Ministry announced in Jerusalem last night.

Mr. Oren, 41, was arrested in Prague, Mr. Shlomo Kaddar, yesterday received official confirmation from the Czech Foreign Ministry of the Czech Attorney-General's decision to remit the remainder of Mr. Oren's 15-year sentence. The Czech Legation is responsible for seeing that he leaves Czechoslovakia immediately after his release.

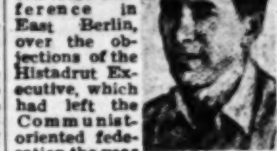

Mr. Oren, a Mapam leader and a member of Kibbutz Mirra, left Israel in November, 1951, to avoid the W.F.T.U. conference in East Berlin, over the objections of the Histadrut Executive, which had left the Communist-orientated federation the year before.

On his way home he went to Prague, ostensibly to obtain the release of Mr. Shlomo Orenstein, then held by the Czech authorities.

He disappeared late in December, 1952, as a prosecution witness in the Slansky anti-Zionist trial.

In October, 1953, the Israel Legation was informed that Mr. Oren had been tried and convicted of "espionage and activities against the Czechoslovak people" and sentenced to 15 years imprisonment. Mr. Orenstein was sentenced to life imprisonment but was released a year-and-a-half ago.

Up till the time of his sentence, 13 notes were sent by the Israel Foreign Ministry, and a number afterwards, demanding his release. Appeals were also made through the Histadrut, the World Jewish Congress and his wife, Rivka.

Mordechai Oren, imprisoned in Czechoslovakia since December 1951, is to be released today, the Foreign Ministry announced in Jerusalem last night.

Mapam Team To Meet Colleague

TEL AVIV, Saturday. — A delegation of Mapam leaders will leave for Europe tomorrow to meet Mr. Mordechai Oren. The delegation includes Mr. E. Oren, his wife, Mr. Ya'akov Haas, M.K. and Mr. Menahem Bader. The place of the meeting was not yet known tonight, but it is presumed to be either Vienna or Zurich.

Mapam spokesmen declared tonight that Mapam will continue to demand that the Zionist movement be "exonerated of the groundless charges brought at the Slansky trial now that the four defendants of the trial have been questioned by the authorities themselves."

In a statement tonight, Mr. Meir Ya'ari, General Secretary of the Party, paid tribute to Jewish opinion and to bring their good wishes to the world and in Israel who pressed for Mr. Oren's release, and particularly to Mr. Moshe Sharet, Foreign Minister, for his personal endeavours.

More to Say

He declared that he could not blind himself to the form of the release, and he would have "more to say about it in the future."

Slovak Freed In Slansky Review

PRAGUE, Saturday. — Mr. Laco Novomesky, a former Slovakian Education Minister and supporter of Rudolf Slansky, Secretary-General of the Czech Communist Party who was hanged together with nine other Communist leaders in December, 1953, has been released from prison.

This was announced in a speech made on Thursday and published yesterday, by Premier Viliam Siroky to the Slovak Communist Party Central Committee. He said that the Slansky case and all other trials had been re-examined, and that the guilty verdicts were found to have been justified with the exception of the charge of "Titoism," which was fabricated and "presented to us by the Berlin gang."

The Premier stated that Mr. Novomesky had been convicted but was being released for good behaviour. He was sentenced to 10 years in prison in 1953, but was later released on parole.

Slansky Blamed

Mr. Siroky blamed Slansky for having introduced illegal interrogation measures used by security organs. He declared that Slansky had penetrated the Czech security system with his agents, among them Karel Svad, Deputy Minister of National Security, and Jaroslav Tausigova, a member of the Central Committee.

The Premier admitted that from 1949 to 1952 the Czech security service used "violence and pressure" in the course of the "violating Socialist legal principles."

The decisions of the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist Party, he declared, caused "confusion within the Czech Communist Party."

ARCHBISHOP FREED

VIENNA, Saturday (UPI). — Hungarian Premier Andras Hegedus told Archbishop Josef Gross that the Hungarian Government has no objection to his resuming his old position as Archbishop of Kalocsa.

A Budapest Radio broadcast, monitored here, said that the Archbishop replied with a statement in which he promised to act as a "faithful son of the Hungarian Republic."

He was pardoned yesterday after having been sentenced to 15 years in jail in 1951 for espionage.

JOURNALISTS END STRIKE

TEL AVIV, Saturday. — The strikes of the editorial staffs of "Haaretz," "Hahaboker" and the ITM news agency were called off over the week-end after the managements had accepted new salary scales.

The strike at "Haaretz" was settled at a meeting yesterday with the Journalists Association, promoted by the Labour Relations Department of the Ministry of Labour. The same agreement was reached today with "Hahaboker" and ITM.

The "Haaretz" and "Hahaboker" dailies which did not appear yesterday, will be published tomorrow.

Defence Tax Bill Eases Rates For Lower Brackets

Jerusalem Post Reporter
 TEL AVIV, Saturday. — The Parliamentary Finance Committee proposed a reduction of defence tax rates on lower tax brackets, but otherwise adopted the Government's original proposals. The Committee concluded its deliberations yesterday, and the bill is now ready for its final reading in the Knesset.

Wage-earners will be taxed 3.5 per cent of the first IL2,100 of taxable income and self-employed, 4.9 per cent. Earnings above IL2,100 will be progressively taxed as follows:

LAW REPORT

The Jerusalem Post May 13, 1956

In the Supreme Court Sitting as Court of Criminal Appeal
Before the President (Justice Olshan), Justice Golan and Justice Reuben Greenberg, Appellant, v. The Attorney General, Respondent (Cz. A. 308/55).

Loan to Witness in 'Home' Case Arranged in Good Faith
The Supreme Court dismissed an application for a writ of habeas corpus against a verdict of the Jerusalem District Court (Judge Golan) delivered on December 21, 1955.

Reuben Greenberg was charged with assisting Isaac Rabinovitch and three other persons in the commission of a crime. The evidence against him was based on the testimony of the late Nahum Sokolov, who had been a witness in the case. The District Court found Greenberg guilty and sentenced him to three years' imprisonment. Greenberg appealed the verdict to the Supreme Court.

The President, in delivering the judgment of the Supreme Court, set out the facts of the case and then considered Judge Golan's verdict. He found that the evidence against Greenberg was not sufficient to support the conviction. He also found that the District Court had erred in its judgment. He therefore allowed the appeal and set aside the conviction.

U.K. Apologizes To Soviet on Frogman

LONDON, Saturday (Reuter).—The Foreign Office today published the text of its note to Russia, apologizing over the case of the British frogman, Commander Lionel Crabbe. The Soviet note had asked for an explanation for the appearance of the frogman, who was seen by Russian sailors near their cruiser Ores-Orjoniokidze, which brought Marshal Bulganin and Mr. Khrushchev to Britain on a 10-day visit. The British note published today differs only in minor translation points from that issued in Moscow last night. It said, "As has already been publicly announced, Commander Crabbe was engaged on diving tests and is presumed to have met his death while on duty. The diver, who was stated in the Soviet note to have been observed from the Soviet warship to be swimming between the Soviet destroyers, was presumably Commander Crabbe. His approach to the destroyers was completely unauthorized and Her Majesty's Government desires to express its regret at the incident." "Frogmen," yesterday declared that "the shameful operation of underwater espionage was directed against those who came to the country on a friendly visit, and does no honour to its organizers and cannot but arouse legitimate indignation among the British as well as the Soviet people."

Histadrut Warns Of Strikes

JERUSALEM, Saturday.—A highly placed Histadrut source said tonight that the Labour Council in Jerusalem, Tel Aviv and Haifa will call strikes in plants where employers decline to pay the agreed wage increases retroactively.

The Manufacturers Association has agreed to raise wages in certain unions, but balks at paying them retroactively.

Mr. Aharon Becker, head of the Trades Union Department of the Histadrut, said at a meeting yesterday that the union would not consider easy terms of paying the arrears but would insist upon their payment. He said that the Histadrut had demanded the wage increase in December, before the last collective agreements had expired, and would retroactively from January 1.

The Tel Aviv branch of the Diamond Workers Union has asked the national union to call a general strike because of the employers' refusal to meet its claims for a 10 per cent wage increase and higher stock benefits.

Eshkol Wants Sale Of Flat Examined

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE, Mr. Levi Eshkol, has asked the State Controller to examine the sale of his flat in Jerusalem to the Properties Division of the Ministry of Finance.

The flat, on the third floor of a building in Rehov Metuda, Jerusalem, was sold to the Properties Division more than two years ago because of an illness in the Minister's family, requiring a ground-floor dwelling, and the need to pay off the debts and mortgage on the flat. The purchase price was $10,000, which is occupied by a Justice of the Supreme Court, was determined by the Assessment Office of the Ministry of Justice.

Although the sale took place in 1954, the transfer in the Land Registry was effected only last week, and the widely publicized in the "Ma'ariv" newspaper in "scandal" headlines.

ENVOY.—Ambassador Abdul Munim Rifai, Jordan's first permanent representative to the U.N., presented his credentials to the Secretary-General on Friday.

U.N. CHIEF

(Continued from Page One) would retract his actions in the region. He said that peace now rests with Israel and her Arab neighbours continuing co-operation with each other. He was "not willing" to recommend any next step.

Mr. Hammarskjöld said that he had no plan to return to the Middle East and that he intended to go to Moscow later this year, although the trip had no connection with the Middle East or any other specific diplomatic problem.

Since it was against his policy to comment on the decisions of individual governments, he would not discuss the justification of the 1950 Tripoli Declaration, which he considered the Middle East "arms race" as a "symptom and not a cause" of the crisis. He stated that in his report he had "not even given a hint" that Israel and the Arab States should establish diplomatic relations, although he recognized the need for some means of arbitrating border incidents.

Mr. Hammarskjöld felt that his report had given "no hint" to both Israel and Egypt on the rocky question of the Suez Canal. He said that he had already been publicly announced, Commander Crabbe was engaged on diving tests and is presumed to have met his death while on duty. The diver, who was stated in the Soviet note to have been observed from the Soviet warship to be swimming between the Soviet destroyers, was presumably Commander Crabbe. His approach to the destroyers was completely unauthorized and Her Majesty's Government desires to express its regret at the incident.

Rampla Beats Hapoel, 2-1 In Second Israel Victory

JERUSALEM POST BUREAU.—Rampla Juniors scored their second victory in this country when they beat a Hapoel Selected by 2:1 at the Jaffa Stadium this afternoon. Some 10,000 fans watched the match, the Uruguayans.

The half-time score was 2-0. The visitors played an accurate close-knit game with an attacking Centre Half and found the gaps in the Hapoel defence. In the 20th minute, Inside Perez hit a fine goal, taking a pass from his Inside Forward partner, and from 25 metres hit the ball into the net from where it rebounded into the net. Five minutes later, Centre Forward Carlos Omarini dribbled through his own, and gave Wisker in the goal no chance with a shot from 10 metres.

In the second half, the Hapoel team fought back strongly with Steimach and Rosenbaum prominent in the attack, but the Forwards missed several good scoring chances. In the 70th minute, a corner was forced, and Outside Right Haim Glaser headed through to score for Hapoel. Further pressure by the Israel Forwards was held by the strong Rampla Juniors defence.

Mr. Y. Moshe, Deputy Head of the Department, said that Histadrut-owned metal enterprises had agreed to pay higher wages retroactively from January 1.

PETAH TIKVA, Saturday.—Two brothers were arrested here yesterday in connection with an alleged plot to deceive the Army draft board.

Police allege that Joseph Kadouri, 27, of Ein Ganim, appeared before the Army Medical Board with a registration card in his brother's name but bearing his own photograph. He obtained a deferment on medical grounds.

The older brother was detained on charges of forging an official document, and the younger was charged with failing to report for military service.

Kibbutz Children on Week-end With Orthodox Safad Families

JERUSALEM POST BUREAU.—The 18 seventh-form children of Kibbutz Ma'or Haim spent the Sabbath in Safad as guests of Orthodox families under a scheme suggested by the children themselves.

Last week, they sent a request to the local Rabbinate asking whether 18 Orthodox families in the town would be willing to receive them for the week-end. Chief Rabbi Simha Kaplan enthusiastically took up the Kibbutz Ma'or request and immediately organized the visit. On their arrival yesterday, the children were met at the bus station by a bus and sent to their hosts.

They attended the Friday night and Saturday morning services as well as the "Third Meal" this afternoon. They took an active part in each of them. It was their first experience of an Orthodox Sabbath.

The children left for home again this evening, very much impressed by their week-end. One of the boys proudly wore the skull cap he had been given as a present and stoutly refused to take it off.

Ma'or Haim has had previous connections with Safad, when a kibbutz member, Uri Yoffe, was the commander of a Palmach unit which aided the town during the 1948 siege.
